These are some of the top laying hens in the industry. They begin to lay at 20-22 weeks of age and will lay through the summer and winter. These birds are 19 weeks as of sale day. If you are looking for some outstanding layers, come bid on a pen or two of 4-H pullets.

They are brown egg layers and will provide more eggs than your family can use. For more information contact Dan Owen at the Extension Office at 433-1582.

Come to 4-H Poultry Sale September 15, 4:30 P.M.

Awards 4:30; Auction 5:00
